

Veggie Pride Parade

Chicago 2013

SECOND ANNUAL CHICAGO VEGGIE PRIDE PARADE Celebrating the Vegan/Vegetarian Lifestyle!

Grant Park, Chicago, IL - June 1, 2013

Veggie Pride Mission:

“Celebrating the Vegan/Vegetarian Lifestyle!” The mission of the parade is to unify the voices of everyone who sees an advantage to a plant-based diet and wishes to share and promote it. This unified voice will help to make a stronger impact on promoting a plant-based diet and will bring public attention to the global importance of our food choices. Let us all unite and inspire others to join us!

About the Parade:

The Veggie Pride Parade has been held annually in Paris since 2001, but later also has been successfully emulated in other cities around the world. Featuring guest speakers, a costume contest, and tons of fun, the Chicago Veggie Pride Parade (CVPP) will be a wonderful all-encompassing event to support local vegans and vegetarians, as well as to raise awareness in the general public about the benefits of a plant-based diet. We encourage everyone, vegans or not, to come and walk, socialize, learn, and of course celebrate our Veg lifestyle with us!

Who Will Attend:

The parade will be attended by vegans, vegetarians, and ANY supporters of a plant-based diet in the greater Chicago area (and in the entire Midwest) who would like to give or receive support in their choices, whether they are based on Ethical, Environmental, Health or Spiritual reasons. Many local groups, national organizations, and media are expected at the event!

Who Will Partner:

Veggie Pride Parade partners can include vegan and vegetarian restaurants, veggie friendly stores and services, veggie groups/organizations, animal and health groups/organizations, and more!
